ALL FOOL'S DAY .- To-lay, the let of April, kacwa as All Fiol's Day, has been pretty gererally observed in this our. All sorts of thatelizing pranks have been played, not only by misoblevious urables, but by urchies of in uder growth. A crowd of wass were on: last night, and this morning thing were e nsideraby mixed up Lirge clothing houses were ed reed with junk shop signs, and well-known temperance advectares had gone into the lager beer trade. There was a g peral confusion of tusines ; lic s. Cit z ins who sold chins-ware had gone isso the shoe business, and shoemakers had opened law offices. So great was the 'an'x up" that one old gentlaman on going to his place of business fau:d a barber's pole in tion of his door. He stopped for a short time, corcladed that he was wrong, and started on down the etreot. He finally returned to his tome, and declared that he knew he was in a bad way, for, after a long business life in the mir, he was anable to find his establishment. On the Royal street front of the market house tuilding and in other public places were disthesed significants containing running commente on the public sots of many of the city offica's Over the door of the ReformClub Hall was the following: "Temperance in winter and whiskey in summer." Near'y the whole day has been spent by many in playing inkes on the unsuspecting. Oaly one fight has toon re-
